VIVID AND ACTIVE WORDS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which would be the best choice for changing this sentence to enhance meaning?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| I went to my grandmother's house and had fun. | \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{I visited my grandmother and was amazed at all of the beautiful birds in her backyard.} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{I went to my grandmother's house and enjoyed watching the birds.} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{I visited my grandmother and her house and watched the birds fly everywhere.} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{I went to my grandmother's house and watched the birds.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose the words that are most vivid.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{tiny, large, hungry} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{microscopic, tattered, thrilling} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{happy, full, tall} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{short, green, open}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which underlined word is a vivid verb?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{The brisk air} \text{ went through the trees.} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{The brisk air is through the trees.} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{The brisk air was through the trees.} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{The brisk air whisked through the trees.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If Sharman had a great time at a party, he should describe it as</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{long, tiring, and uneventful.} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{ordinary, boring, and exhausting.} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{exciting, unusual, and eventful.} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{slow paced, ordinary, and usual.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose a word more vivid than the underlined word below.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jonie went home after the tornado warning sounded.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{rushed} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{walked} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{turned} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{strolled}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which of the following figurative language phrases is the best description for a character in a story who is naive and inexperienced in life?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{He/She is crazier than a loon.} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{He/She is blind as a bat.} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{He/She is as innocent as a lamb.} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{He/She is as brave as a lion.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which of the following figurative language phrases would correctly describe the feeling of being unattached and unrestricted?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{old as the hills} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{dense as a brick} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{fresh as a daisy} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{free as a bird}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose the sentence that uses the most vivid words.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{The sun shines through the window.} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{The tattered flag rippled in the breeze.} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{We spread a blanket and sat down to eat lunch.} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{The farmer carried the food into the barn.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>We would have been here sooner if Stephanie had not been such a snail.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{She moves slowly.} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{She is small.} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{She had to get her coat.} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{She moves quickly.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Identify the words that would be the most vivid.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{mad, bad} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{big, little} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{shivering, crept} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{small, nice}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose the best way to describe the house in this sentence.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The _______house that they built for the queen had over eighty rooms.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{big} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{enormous} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{large} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{small}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which rewritten sentence gives readers a clear picture in their minds?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The house was scary, and I didn't want to stay.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a.} & \quad \text{The house was very scary; I screamed and I ran out quickly!} \\
\text{b.} & \quad \text{The house was spooky, and I walked backwards out the door!} \\
\text{c.} & \quad \text{The house made strange noises, and I screamed and ran out!} \\
\text{d.} & \quad \text{The old house creaked and groaned; I froze, then ran like no other!}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose the best choice for changing this sentence to enhance meaning?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I went to my grandmother's house and had fun.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{I visited my grandmother and was amazed at all of the beautiful birds in her backyard.} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{I went to my grandmother's house and enjoyed watching the birds.} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{I visited my grandmother and her house and watched the birds fly everywhere.} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{I went to my grandmother's house and watched the birds.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose a word more vivid than the underlined word below.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jonie went home after the tornado warning sounded.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{rushed} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{walked} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{turned} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{strolled}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which of the following figurative language phrases is the best description for a character in a story who is naive and inexperienced in life?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{He/She is crazier than a loon.} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{He/She is blind as a bat.} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{He/She is as innocent as a lamb.} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{He/She is as brave as a lion.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which of the following figurative language phrases would correctly describe the feeling of being unattached and unrestricted?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{old as the hills} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{dense as a brick} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{fresh as a daisy} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{free as a bird}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose the sentence that uses the most vivid words.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{The sun shines through the window.} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{The tattered flag rippled in the breeze.} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{We spread a blanket and sat down to eat lunch.} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{The farmer carried the food into the barn.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>We would have been here sooner if Stephanie had not been such a snail.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{She moves slowly.} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{She is small.} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{She had to get her coat.} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{She moves quickly.}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Choose the best way to describe the house in this sentence.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The _______house that they built for the queen had over eighty rooms.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{big} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{enormous} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{large} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{small}
\end{align*}|

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Which rewritten sentence gives readers a clear picture in their minds?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The house was scary, and I didn't want to stay.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| \begin{align*}
\text{a} & \quad \text{The house was very scary; I screamed and I ran out quickly!} \\
\text{b} & \quad \text{The house was spooky, and I walked backwards out the door!} \\
\text{c} & \quad \text{The house made strange noises, and I screamed and ran out!} \\
\text{d} & \quad \text{The old house creaked and groaned; I froze, then ran like no other!}
\end{align*|